Staten Island University Hospital's North Shore Summit:

The “North Shore Summit” is an annual event where SIUH invites local partners, community organizations, elected officials, Northwell Health Leaders, and other key stakeholders to come together and discuss innovative strategies to raise health in our community. This year’s summit will focus on discussing and addressing the various social determinants of health effecting our borough. This year's event will include guest speakers, panel conversations, and tabling opportunities.

Key-Note Speaker -

Dr. Michelle Morse, Acting Commissioner of NYC Department of Health and Mental Hygiene

Dr. Michelle Morse is the Acting Commissioner of Health at the NYC Department of Health and Mental Hygiene (NYC Health). She is also the inaugural Chief Medical Officer and Executive Deputy Commissioner at NYC Health, where she leads the agency’s work in bridging public health and health care to reduce health inequities, guiding the Center for Health Equity and Community Wellness’s place-based and cross-cutting health equity programs and serving as a key liaison to clinicians and clinical leaders across New York City.
